POSITION : Supervisory Information Technology Specialist

SERIES AND GRADE : GS-2210-15 (FPL: 15)

NUMBER OF VACANCIES : One

SALARY RANGE : $92,060 to $119,682 per annum

ORGANIZATION : Department of the Treasury
Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN)
Office of Information Technology

DUTY STATION : Vienna, Virginia

APPLICATIONS WILL BE ACCEPTED FROM : All qualified applicants (All Sources).

Note: There will be one rating and selection process applied to both status and non-status candidates.

SUMMARY OF DUTIES: This position is for the Deputy Assistant Director, Office of Information Technology (OIT) of the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN). The principal purpose of this position is to provide innovative, cost-effective technology management and solutions in support of domestic and international anti-money laundering efforts by facilitating information collection, analysis and sharing. The incumbent fully shares responsibility with the Assistant Director, OIT for information resources management. This responsibility includes planning, procurement, and contracting; budget development and execution; policy development; management of application development and enhancement; and the management of network infrastructure design, implementation, operation and voice telecommunications, and daily supervision of OIT personnel. The employee plays a key role in the development, implementation, and maintenance of sound and integrated IT architectures including systems design, development, and support. The employee is also the Deputy Chief Information Officer of FinCEN, and assists the CIO in promoting effective agency operations by implementing budget-linked capital planning with performance-based and results-based information technology systems.

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS: Applicants must have one year of specialized experience equivalent to the next lower grade level. Specialized experience is experience that equipped the applicant with the particular knowledge, skills and abilities to perform successfully the duties of the position, and that is typically in or related to the work of the position to be filled.

Other: Applicants must have demonstrated in their work experience or training they possess, or have the potential to develop, the quality of successful supervision.

APPLICANTS WILL BE EVALUATED AGAINST THE FOLLOWING CRITERIA:

1. Mastery in the development, implementation, and management of sound and integrated IT programs for the design and operation of major information systems. (Applicants must address their experience and roles in the development and implementation of IT programs.)
2. Knowledge and expertise in the formulation of long-range strategies, plans, and policies for substantive IT programs. (Applicants must address the nature of their experience in these activities.)
3. Ability to interact effectively with senior management officials, administrative experts, representatives of user agencies, and IT service providers to reach consensus on approaches for obtaining FinCEN and partner agency objectives. (Applicants must describe their role in conducting such interactions.)
4. Experience in managing the activities for a complete IT program for a substantial organization, including developing policies, defining organizational structures and staffing levels, integrating program activities, overseeing procurement activities, and providing both technical and administrative direction and supervision of IT staff. (Applicants must address their role in managing IT programs.)
5. Ability to effectively promote Equal Employment Opportunity Programs. (Applicants must address their experience in effectively promoting EEO Programs.)

Basis of Rating: Ratings will be based on an evaluation of an applicant's experience as it relates to the qualification requirements and on the knowledge, skills and abilities (KSA's) described in the application materials. Applicants should provide detailed evidence of the KSA's in the application package in the form of clear, concise examples showing level of accomplishment and degree of responsibility. Qualified candidates will be assigned a score ranging from 70 to 100, not including points assigned for veterans' preference. Applicants are encouraged to address each evaluation criteria on plain bond paper and attach it to their application/resume.
